Good Evening and Welcome,

If you are ready to enjoy an evening of Grandma's special sugar cookies and tiny tots with their eyes all aglow, you might be in the wrong place. However, if you are ready to have a look at Christmas from something other than your usual vantage points, we have just what you're looking for. I have enjoyed this show from the first time I read it, through the planning stages, the less than stellar rehearsals, to seeing the three Christmas guys turn this into a show that I truly believe is major funny stuff. I've heard the jokes now three dozen times and I still think they're a hoot. I would like to thank Ed, Rick, and Wilbur for all of their hard work; they are definitely the studs of Holiday Theater. To my good friend Gail, stage manager without equal, I owe at least 6 thanks, maybe 12. And to Linda, Barb, Lauren, Sheri, Jamie, Debbie, Mike and Cindy and everyone else that has helped put this show together I say thank you one and all. Finally to you our audience we have had our laughs for several weeks; now it's your turn. Thanks for joining us.

Merry Christmas

Bob Hous
